Investigative Oral Presentation

The purpose of this assignment is to provide a context to this term’s novel study. Private Peaceful is the story of Thomas Peaceful and his family as they are thrown into the upheaval of the First World War.

You will be delivering an Oral Presentation that informs your audience about a particular aspect of the World War 1.

Some topics to choose from are:

- Life in the trenches
- Conscription in WW1
- July 1st 1916, the Battle of Somme
- Weapons of WW1
- Uniforms and equipment
- ‘Roses of No Man’s Land,’ the role of women during WW1
- Thieval (British Memorial to the Missing)
- Crime and punishment on the front line
- Biography of a British/Australian General from WW1 (e.g. General Haig of Monash)
- The Western Front
- Medals awarded during (bravery and service)

If there is a topic that you would like to research that isn’t on the list, please consult your teacher.

The Oral Presentation requires you to research your topic and develop a PowerPoint to compliment your talk. The use of a combination of quotes, props, images, and charts is required to achieve a high grade.

The Oral Presentation must go for 4 minutes.
